Meet & Greet the ACIL

for all master students in international (criminal) law

12 November 2014 (18:00-19:00) - A008

The Amsterdam Center for International Law is a Center of Excellence at the University of Amsterdam. At the ACIL, research is conducted in the field of public international law including international criminal law. Many of the ACIL members teach the courses in your (research) master. The aim of this meeting is to make you acquainted with the ACIL and its researchers.

The director of the ACIL, Yvonne Donders (Professor of International Human Rights and Cultural Diversity), will first give a general introduction.

After that, André Nollkaemper (Professor of Public International Law), Terry Gill (Professor of Military Law) and Harmen van der Wilt (Professor of International Criminal Law) will explain to you the various research projects and themes that are most pertinent in the field of international law and currently embedded in the ACIL.

Finally, a topic from the news will be discussed to exemplify the strong relationship of academic research with society. There will be room for questions & answers.

The meeting is followed by DRINKS.

Check out the ACIL website: www.acil.uva.nl

No need to register.

 Join us & discover what academic research is all about! *****